

SAR HOW TO HOST HANDBOOK

Introduction	5
Why a handbook?.....	5
Why are scholars threatened?.....	6
Who threatens scholars?	7
What types of threats?	7
Why a network?	8
Why host a threatened scholar?.....	8
Getting started	9
How do you join the network?	9
Local SAR committees.....	10
Building support: Events and other activities	11
Preparing to host: Surveying resources.....	12
Selecting and inviting a scholar to campus.....	15
Application, nomination or referral?	15
Selecting a scholar: Scholarship, risk and other considerations	16
Security and confidentiality	23
Inviting a scholar	25
Preparing to welcome a scholar to campus	26
Mentoring	27
Immigration	28
Travel.....	30
Housing/accommodations.....	31
Administrative set-up: Keys, IDs, payroll and accounts.....	31
Planning a welcoming event	33
Finalize plans with the scholar.....	33
Arrival and adjustment	34
First 48 Hours.....	34
First two weeks.....	34
The International Office.....	35
Making the most of the visit	36
Professional life.....	37
Public talks and activities.....	39
Security concerns.....	39
Health and wellness.....	40
Plan early! Getting ready for post-visit.....	43
Plan ahead.....	43
Return, renew or move on?.....	44
Planning to return home	45
Renewing the visit	45
Moving to another SAR host.....	46

Concluding the visit.....	46
Showing thanks	47
References and reviews	47
Evaluation.....	47
Trouble-shooting: Dealing with unexpected challenges	48
Appendices	50
1. Institutional membership agreement.....	51
2. Letter to form local SAR committee: Template.....	53
3. Invitation letter: Template.....	54
4. Invitation letter: Example	55
5. Checklist for local SAR committees	56
6. Model press release: Template	59
7. Model press release: Example.....	60
8. Sample scholar bios for media.....	61
9. Scholar end-of-visit report	62
10. End-of-visit report for local SAR committee/mentors	65
11. Internet security resources	68
12. Jobs, fellowships, and study opportunities for at-risk scholars	69
13. Resources for hosts and scholars in the United States	71
14. Resources for at-risk scholars in other countries	78
